

VII EWDSy

May 20th - 24th 2018. Certosa di Pontignano, Siena (Italy)

The University of Siena is organizing the "Seventh European Workshop in Drug Synthesis" (VII EWDSy), to be held, from May 20th to 24th 2018, in Certosa di Pontignano, on the outskirts of the beautiful city of Siena, in Tuscany (ITALY).

Workshop Outline

As always, the workshop will be focused on truly cutting-edge medicinal chemistry procedures, with a special attention towards synthetic chemistry. The aim of this unique event is to provide a fertile ground for young chemists to share and exchange knowledge.

The topics will be covered in the mornings by lectures from all around the world and dedicated sessions in the afternoon.

There will also be the possibility to attend to short talks from promising young researchers and shotgun presentations from selected posters.
